TERMS & CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

- FireSystemDrawings LLC is a third-party drawing service and is not responsible for any acts, omissions, errors, design, layout, installation or protection methods illustrated in our drawing packages. Responsibility lies solely with the authorized, certified, and properly trained installer of the fire suppression system to verify accuracy and compliance with the manufacturer's listing and/or AHJ approval.
- All payment terms are COD payable by credit card upon delivery. In order to keep our prices low and maintain focus on producing high quality drawings, we do not offer any other payment terms at this time. Your order submission is your approval to perform the work and charge the credit card you provided. Charges may still be assessed for any cancellations received AFTER work has begun.
- All drawing packages provided by FireSystemDrawings LLC are the exclusive property of FireSystemDrawings LLC and may not be reproduced, modified, altered or otherwise used by any party without the expressed written permission of FireSystemDrawings LLC. Customers of FireSystemDrawings LLC are hereby granted an implied limited use license to provide copies of drawings for purposes of plan review, permit or project approval only. Drawings may not be re-sold, re-marketed or distributed without the expressed written permission of FireSystemDrawings LLC.
- Information contained in the drawing packages are based on the latest information known to FireSystemDrawings LLC as provided by our Customers. Because FireSystemDrawings LLC is not the "designer of record" of the system, it is the responsibility of the system installer to review the contents of the drawing package and provide updated information as may be necessary.
